

PHOTOGRAPHIC IMAGES

CONDITIONS OF USE

1. No use is to be made of any image other than for the purpose for which the application is made. No further reproduction or image storage is to be carried out that is not directly associated with that specific purpose.
2. Permission to use the photograph does not grant exclusive rights of any kind or imply the transfer of any copyright to the user.
3. The applicant must complete a reproduction agreement form and pay the appropriate fees, as specified on the schedule of user fees.
4. When used in publications, photographs are to be credited with the numbers printed below or adjacent to the relevant photograph. Caption details will be supplied but do not need to be adhered to precisely so long as the image is correctly identified.
5. Immediately after publication, the applicant agrees to supply the collection with one free copy of the publication or production.
6. The applicant undertakes that images are not cropped, overprinted, or altered in any way without prior written approval. Where images are to be used as part of any design work, a design proposal must be submitted for approval. We reserve the right to withdraw or deny use of any photograph in cases where reproduction is deemed unsuitable or of an unacceptable standard.
7. The collection reserves the right to view on demand proofs before or after publication. For overseas publications this right may be exercised through any representative nominated by the collection.
8. All images must be credited to "Jonathan F. Vance, Department of History, The University of Western Ontario."

SCHEDULE OF USER FEES

A fee is charged for the use of images from the collection. The fee includes charges for photographic materials and processing, or for scanning / digitizing.

Images purchased for private home viewing or research purposes are exempt from user fees.

User fees apply to images used in the final production, and cover both one country and world rights.

User fees apply for one edition only. For each subsequent edition another fee of 50% of the original payment is required.

Online rights are limited to five years.

User fees are payable at the time of application to reproduce. Payment in Canadian funds (in the form of a cheque or money order, payable to Jonathan F. Vance – credit card or bank transfer payment are not possible) should be sent with the reproduction agreement form.
